Ann Wright, ret. Colonel and diplomat who served in Somalia, Uzbekistan, and Mongolia; tireless advocate for military sexual trauma victims, and Citizen of the Year in Atlanta, 2009...will join us for an intimate dinner in Seattle. You are receiving a special invitation to an invigorating discussion on the Middle East wars, and the cost to soldiers and civilians on all sides of the issue. Ann will discuss strategies for moving our work with returning soldiers. We plan to frame effective, powerful messages about the costs to ALL of us with never ending wars destroying lives in the Middle East and here.
