

On Jan. 13, the VIRGINIA GENERAL ASSEMBLY will be back in session, determined to balance the budget by laying off more state workers, cutting services & aid to the cities, raising fees, fines & university tuition.

IT'S TIME TO MARCH FOR:

JOBS, PEACE, JUSTICE!

No More Budget Cuts or Layoffs!

Make the Big Corporations Pay Their Fair Share!

SAT. - JAN. 9

3 pm: RALLY
at Kanawha Plaza

8th and Canal streets, downtown Richmond,
next to the Federal Reserve Building

4 pm: MARCH on the State Capitol

through the Financial District, past the banks & corporations that aren't paying

On Sat., Jan. 9, Virginians from across the state will MARCH ON THE STATE CAPITOL to tell the new governor & the General Assembly:

- Don't balance the budget on the backs of Virginia's workers!
- Raise Virginia's income tax on large corporations – now the 2nd lowest in the country!
- Enact an immediate moratorium on layoffs, cutbacks, evictions & foreclosures!
- No scapegoating of immigrants!
- Equality for people of color, women & the LGBT community!
- Money for jobs & education, not prisons, wars & occupations!

Called by the VIRGINIA PEOPLE'S ASSEMBLY

A statewide network of communities & organizations representing the interests of all poor & working people in Virginia

Endorsed by: Breanne Armbrust, Director, Richmond Jobs with Justice ● Lillie "Ms. K" Branch-Kennedy, Director, Resource Information Help for the Disadvantaged (R.I.H.D.) ● Rain Burroughs, Code Pink - Richmond ● Coalition for Justice - Blacksburg ● Defenders for Freedom, Justice & Equality ● Ana Edwards, Chair, Sacred Ground Historical Reclamation Project - Richmond ● Rev.
